

Guide for authors

1. Journal "Chemija" publishes original papers and review articles in the field of chemistry. Papers offered for publication should not have been published elsewhere. Papers should be submitted in English.

2. Articles should be headed by a concise but informative title. This should be followed by the names of authors and by the name and address of the institution where the work was carried out.

3. The main text of the paper will be divided into Introduction, Experimental, Results and Discussion, Conclusions. The paper should be provided with list of References and Summary in Lithuanian (for Lithuanian authors). An Abstract (not exceeding 200 words) and 2–5 key words must be provided at the beginning of each article.

5. Symbols, formulae, equations, indices, similar letters should be set off clearly. Greek and Gothic letters should be underlined in red and named in the margin when first used. SI units should be used, chemical nomenclature should be based on the IUPAC lists.

6. Tables, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals, must be typed on separate sheets and provided with headings that enable them to be comprehensible without reference to the text.

7. The original of figures in greyscale (unless otherwise agreed in advance) should be in a form suitable for direct reproduction; figures should be drawn on plain white paper or on tracing paper, line drawings should be in black ink; computer-drawn diagrams should be prepared on a high quality printer or plotter. Legends (captions) should be typed in sequence on a separate page or pages and should be understandable without reference to the text.

8. References (in Latin characters) should also be submitted on a separate sheet. The number of work, initials and surnames of all authors (write "and" before the last one) will be followed by:

b) for collected articles – title of work (italics after "in"), editors (in parentheses), volume, pages, publishing house, place of publication, year (in parentheses);

c) for books – title, language in parentheses (if needed), edition number and volume (if any), page and/or chapter (if necessary), publishing house, place of publication, year (in parentheses);

d) for patent – country, patent number (or application number) and year of publication (in parentheses).

10. Authors should submit the electronic version of their manuscripts (Microsoft Word, Times New Roman 12-point only, file format for illustrations *.tiff, *.jpeg or *.cdr) to: chemijavilnius@yahoo.com. The final version of a manuscript should be submitted both in electronic and paper forms (one copy). The paper copy should be submitted to: Dr. A. Jagminienė, Institute of Chemistry, A.
